FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Educational Luncheon for Local Dental Professionals

(Coldwater, MI) The Branch-Hillsdale-St. Joseph Community Health Agency would like to extend an invitation to all local dentists, hygienists and dental Office managers to learn more about the new Healthy Michigan Plan, an affordable health plan for low income adults. The health department is holding a special informational luncheon:

Thursday, August 21, 2014
12:00-1:00pm
Branch-Hillsdale-St. Joseph Community Health Department
570 N. Marshall Road, Coldwater, MI 49036

During the meeting, presenters from the Michigan Department of Community Health and the Michigan Community Dental Clinics will share important information about the Healthy Michigan Plan and how it can help fill the dental insurance gap for county residents. We will also learn about public health dental clinics and the steps our community should follow to establish a new clinic in Coldwater. Your input is needed in this important discussion. Leading our discussion are:

Nancy Gurzick, RDH, BS, MA - Dental Policy Specialist,
Michigan Department of Community Health

April Callis, MA, PMP - Organizational Change Management,
Michigan Department of Community Health

Kim Singh - Outreach Coordinator,
Michigan Community Dental Clinics, Inc.

One free CEU credit is being offered for dental professionals who attend and a light lunch will be served.

If you have questions, or would like additional information, please contact Steve Todd, Health Officer, at 517-279-9561, ext. 0148# or by email at todds@bhsj.org. To register for this FREE informative educational luncheon, please contact Rochelle Bassage, Health Educator, at 517-279-9561, ext. 0104# or bassager@bhsj.org. We look forward to seeing you!

To learn more about the health department's public health dental program, go to our website at www.bhsj.org and clinic on the dental clinic button located on the left side pane.
