

For Immediate Release

Date: 12/15/2009

Who: The Branch-Hillsdale-St. Joseph Community Health Agency

What: H1N1 Clinics for the General Public

When: December 16 – 4pm-7pm – at the Community Health Agency
December 22 – 7am-11am – at the Community Health Agency
December 29 – 1pm-7pm – at the Community Health Agency

January 5, 2010 – at the Burnside Senior Center – 8:30-11am

Where: * December clinics to be held at the Branch-Hillsdale-St. Joseph Community Health Agency - 570 N. Marshall Road Coldwater, MI

* January Clinic to be held at the Burnside Senior Center, 65 Grahl Drive, Coldwater

Who is to be vaccinated?

- Everyone – the target group restrictions have been lifted. Anyone over 6 months of age is eligible and encouraged to be vaccinated at these clinics.

Items of note

- ✓ School age children under 10 are still being encouraged to be vaccinated in their schools. The Second shots for Branch County school children have already begun. Children who missed the vaccination in their school may attend these clinics.
- ✓ There is no fee for H1N1 vaccinations; no appointments are necessary
- ✓ For more information about H1N1 flu and clinic dates and time, visit the Community Health Agency website at:

www.bhsj.org