FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New 2017 WIC Income Guidelines

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) has released its 2017 WIC Income Guidelines. Effective July 1st, these new income guidelines increase the income eligibility threshold so that more women, infants and children can receive healthy WIC foods. Now, a family of four can make an annual income up to $45,510 and qualify for WIC. This equates to an hourly wage of $21.87.

The Branch-Hillsdale-St. Joseph Community Health Agency is encouraging pregnant and post-partum women, breastfeeding women and families with children up to age five years to sign up for WIC. Val Newton, Personal Health & Disease Prevention Director for the Health Department, says "WIC food options are continually expanding. WIC participants may use their benefits to receive milk, cheese, eggs, juices rich in Vitamin C, cereals rich in iron, and dry peas/beans or peanut butter, fresh fruits and vegetables, whole grain breads/whole wheat pasta or tortillas and yogurt. All these foods are nutritious, rich in vitamins and minerals and are essential for growing bodies."

Studies have shown that families who participate in WIC can save anywhere between $30 to $112 in their monthly grocery bill by utilizing their benefits. Val goes on to say "In addition to the excellent food selection available through WIC, the savings to a monthly grocery bill are tremendous.

Furthermore, WIC participants receive referrals to other important Health Department services.” For example:

- Women without health insurance can receive in-person assistance in enrolling in Medicaid or other health insurance programs through the Marketplace.
- Children are screened and, if needed, can receive immunizations at their appointment. Adult caregivers may also qualify for immunizations.
- Children less than three years can receive fluoride varnishes that help prevent tooth decay on newly erupting teeth.
- Infants and children can receive a car seat check, and if needed a new car seat.

“All of these services are available to eligible WIC participants, free of charge” Val adds.

WIC stands for Women, Infants and Children. It is a supplemental food and nutrition program offered by the Branch-Hillsdale-St. Joseph Community Health Agency. The program is designed to correct or prevent poor nutrition in pregnant, postpartum or breastfeeding women, infants and children up to age 5 who are at risk for poor health. WIC helps pregnant women get timely prenatal care and improves pregnancy outcomes by providing needed support services. WIC participation improves the diet of pregnant women and improves the length of pregnancy and infant birth weight. WIC participation also reduces infant death by reducing the incidence of low birth weight infants (under 5.5 lbs.).

Eligible WIC participants are:

- Pregnant, women who are breastfeeding or have recently had a baby, children from birth up to age 5 years who are residents of Michigan. (US citizenship is not required)
- Screened for nutritional and health risks which can be improved by better nutrition.
- Income eligible using the following revised income guidelines:
